SOVIET READY TO COOPERATE, CAPITAL HEARS

Future Aggression By Any Nation Or Group To Be Restrained

PARLEY PROVES SUCCESS
Democratic Government May Be Offered To All Except Baltic States

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—It was learned on high authority today that Russia has indicated at the Moscow conference its willingness to cooperate with the United States and Great Britain in maintaining future world peace.

The Soviet government is said to be prepared to accept joint responsibility with this country and Britain in restraining future aggression by any nation or group of nations bent on conquest.

Official Washington considers the meeting of the American, British and Soviet foreign ministers so far has been a definite success.

The satisfactory progress made in the discussions up to date has encouraged the belief in official Washington circles that the Soviet government will be prepared to extend to all Europe, with the possible exception of the Baltic states, the principle of freely-chosen democratic government embodied in the Anglo-American-Russian agreement on Italy.

The tripartite agreement on Italy was announced October 13 in the form of a joint statement by President Roosevelt, British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin.

The agreement recognized that "nothing can detract from the absolute and untrammelled right of the people of Italy by constitutional means to decide on the Democratic form of government they will eventually have."

Russia is now believed to be willing to extend this principle to the rest of the European continent, except for the Baltic states of Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia. These territories have already been incorporated into the Soviet union, and little hope is held that Stalin will agree to their restoration as separate states after the war.

Contrary to published reports, however, it is understood the question of the future of those Baltic states has not been raised at the Moscow conference up to the present. Nor has the future of Finland been discussed yet.

Likewise, the diplomatic advice reaching Washington from Moscow have contained no mention of any Soviet demand for a "corridor" to the Aegean sea. It would cause no surprise in Washington if Russia eventually insists on the right of free passage through the Dardanelles, but so far this question has not come up in the Moscow talks.

The discussions appear to be proceeding on the broader basis of general principles. It is considered possible that the detailed application of those principles to specific countries or areas may be left for later conference, perhaps by President Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin if and when they meet.

WHERE NAZIS SQUIRM IN TRAPS

FAST closing Crimean bottleneck where, as arrow indicates, Russian forces have been hammering southward since the fall of Melitopol and more successful each hour is the drive past Krivoi Rog, important mining center. The trap closing on the Crimea allows but one chance for Germans to escape: by means of a rail line about halfway to the Bug river at Perekop, while to the northward German troops in the Dnieper river bend also face doom following the fall of Krivoi Rog. In this area from the Bend to the Sea of Azov some 750,000 Nazis are believed to be involved by the Russian strategy.

American Legion Club Buys $10,000 War Bonds Out Of Large Profits

Circleville's American Legion Club accumulated $10,000 in War Bonds, $2,819.04 in cash and bought and paid for more than $4,000 in equipment and furniture in two years and five months of operation. This fact was revealed to post members Wednesday night by Earl A. Smith and Tom Wilson who conceived the club idea, executed the plan and supervised the club from the time it was opened in May of 1941. For the first time in its entire history the local American Legion post is adequately financed. The post had no money to invest in the original club venture, its treasury at the time showing a balance of less than $50. The project was financed outside the Legion, the post being obligated in no manner. Approximately $5,000 was spent for furniture, equipment and in remodeling the second floor of the Bremer building in North Court street for club occupancy.

THIEVES FOOL JUDGE AND FLEE ON MAGIC RUG

CHICAGO, Oct. 28—That rug, John Hughes and James Garrity, odd jobs men, were accused of stealing from William Dougherty, operator of a flat building, turned out to have been a veritable magic rug.

When the two were arrested, they told police, "sure, we did it," and confessed they took also 60 feet of hose and a lawn mower. But they thought, if given the opportunity, they could find the plunder and get it back.

So Hughes was held in jail as a hostage while Garrity went out and looked and looked, with no success. He came back to jail and argued, maybe, if he had Hughes with him, they together could recover the stolen property. So Hughes was released, too.

Both were back in court yesterday to report their efforts were fruitless, but they remarked jubilantly that it didn't make any difference for "Dougherty says he doesn't want to prosecute any more."

"Case dismissed," said the judge. Dougherty was told today what had happened and was asked if he really had dropped the case. "Me drop it?" he exclaimed. "What goes on here? I haven't seen those guys since that first day in court."

But the "guys" were gone—on their magic carpet.

HUN PRISONERS ESCAPE

Police radio reported Thursday the escape of two German prisoners of war from Camp Breckenridge, Ky. Chief W. F. McCrady said the men were Erich Wulf, 30, and Carl Ziegman, 22. How they escaped was not explained. So far as is known, the escapes are the first from the Kentucky camp where numerous Circleville and Pickaway county soldiers are stationed.

50,000 MINERS DEFY ORDER OF LABOR BOARD

Halt In Coal Production Seriously Crippling U. S. War Effort

TEN STATES AFFECTED
Strike Spread Continues Despite Appeals By Union Chiefs

By International News Service
Serious crippling the nation's war effort, nearly 50,000 striking coal miners remained idle in ten states today in defiance of the back-to-work deadline fixed by the War Labor Board.

Hundreds of thousands of tons of coal were lost to the nation's war plants since the unauthorized strikes started 14 days ago in protest against the lack of a contract and the failure of the WLB to meet the miners' wage demands.

The strikes continued to spread today, the deadline fixed by the WLB on threats of carrying the case to President Roosevelt for action which again may lead to the seizure of the mines by the government.

Even the back-to-work appeals of the strikers' own union, the United Mine Workers of America, went unheeded in the face of the UMW's truce which ended the nationwide coal strike last June. At that time the UMW's policy committee ordered the men to resume work until October 31 unless the government returned the mines to the owners.

The strikes started two weeks ago after the government-controlled mines were returned to the operators.

Lewis Calls Meeting

Significantly, John L. Lewis, UMW chief, called a meeting of the union's policy committee in Washington for next Monday, the day after the time limit set by the truce.

States affected by the recent work stoppages were Alabama, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia.

Alabama, where an estimated 20,000 diggers were idle, was the hardest hit by the strikes. At least 13 open hearth and steel furnaces producing for war materials were banked there because of the lack of coal.

In Illinois, a complete tie-up of all coal mines operated by the UMW was feared as the WLB rejected the Illinois contract which (Continued on Page Four)

ROMANIANS IN RUSSIA TOLD TO START RUNNING

LONDON, Oct. 28—All Romanians living east of the Dniester river in southwest Russia have been ordered to prepare for removal back to Romania, a Zurich dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Agency reported today.

An "unimpeachable source" in Bucharest was said to have confirmed that authorities ordered civilians to prepare for immediate evacuation.

In addition, it was said, all factories within a 60-mile zone west of the Dniester, must be removed to Romania.

NAVY LOSES NO U. S. SOLDIERS IN SEA CROSSINGS

NEW YORK, Oct. 28—Vice Admiral Adolphus Andrews disclosed today that not a single American soldier has been lost in the current war while crossing the Atlantic in Navy-escorted troop convoys.

The commander of the eastern sea frontier, in a Navy Day address, declared that the U. S. Navy now is "the mightiest in the world, dwarfed only by the size of the task confronting it."

Sales Tax Regarded As Doomed

Backers Of Heavier Levy Shift Campaign To Industrial Front

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—House ways and means committee members favoring heavier taxation shifted their campaign for a general sales tax today to efforts to obtain a less drastic manufacturer's sales levy.

All signs continued to point to defeat of a proposal by Rep. Robertson (D) Va., for a 10 per cent general sales levy as the committee neared a vote.

However, committee action so far has resulted in raising only two billion dollars and some members are arguing that this is not sufficient—that more revenue must be sought.

The situation has been further complicated by the distinct probability that the committee will reconsider its action in adding another $1-per-quart tax on liquor and lower the increase to 50 cents a quart. This would reduce the total revenue so far voted to slightly less than one billion, 800 million dollars.

The committee was reassured only yesterday that President Roosevelt is still opposed to a general sales tax, with the result that sales tax advocates, particularly several leading Democrats, are advancing a proposal to impose a 10 per cent manufacturer's sales levy. Tentative estimates place the revenue from this proposal at one billion, 700 million dollars, or approximately one-fourth of what a 10 per cent general sales tax would yield.

There are also proposals pending to reconsider the committee's action in boosting the 2nd class mailing rates, and to nullify a presidential executive order issued more than a year ago lowering the postage rates on books.

The committee tentatively completed its consideration of the corporate tax structure yesterday by rejecting proposals to increase the present 40 per cent combined normal and surtax rate, and by adopting an increase in the excess profits rate from 90 to 95 per cent.

The reason given for reconsidering the increase in liquor taxes is that state liquor administrators are deluging the committee with warnings that a $1-per-quart increase will cause an upsurge in bootlegging.

ROME SLATED TO BE LOOTED, KNOX DECLARES

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 28—A warning that the retreating Germans will loot and pillage Rome in the same manner they wrecked Naples was sounded today by Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox.

"They are still a bunch of Huns," Knox declared. The navy secretary recently returned from a visit to the European theatre of war, where he saw the actual wreckage left by the Nazis at Naples.

Knox urged Americans not to mingle the nation's internal politics with its external relations. "It is vital to the war effort," he declared, "that questions which concern our relations with other nations, especially our Allies, be kept out of political campaign discussion."

In a review of the war's progress, Knox asserted that "our battle line at sea has grown to... the greatest and most powerful navy in the world."

"In the battle of the Atlantic," he said, "the German U-boat no longer dominates the sea lanes." Knox gave a "minimum" forecast of the war's end in an interview with reporters. The end of the war in Europe will come next year at the earliest, he predicted, and in 1945, at the earliest in the Pacific.

"Neither the German nor the Jap will be quickly or easily vanquished," he warned. "The sternest kind of fighting lies ahead." Knox declared the nation will exceed its naval construction objective for 1943.

PESSIMISM OF HUNS RISES AS ARMIES RETREAT

Nazi Command Fearful Of Complete Disorder In Occupied France

LEADERS NOW AT ODDS
Unlimited Confidence Of Germans Gives Way To Defeat Certainty

LONDON, Oct. 28—Constantly growing pessimism within the Reich and fear of an outbreak of complete disorder in occupied France added today to the woes of the Nazi command, according to dispatches from the continent.

Deep fissures were said to be appearing between Germany's high military and political leadership under pressure of defeats in Russia and intensified Allied bombings of the Reich.

The best information reaching Switzerland, said a Geneva dispatch to the Daily Mail, is that the morale of the German nation has taken a swift downward plunge.

"Pessimism and defiance have suddenly taken the place of that unlimited confidence, placid carelessness and unshakable faith in victory that formerly characterized the greater mass of the German people up to the time of the Stalingrad defeat," a special correspondent of the Gazette de Lausanne said.

The article on conditions inside Germany, appearing in the Daily Express, said that the confidence and discipline of the Germans has been seriously shaken and that the populace feels that the Reich has absolutely no chance of winning the war.

France Fears Trouble

Fear of trouble in France was voiced by a spokesman for the government of Marshal Henri Philippe Petain who declared in an address over the Nazi-controlled Vichy radio that "complete disorder is likely to break out in France at any moment."

The Vichy spokesman said a new wave of terrorism was sweeping through France and asserted sabotage was on the increase. He reported numerous clashes between what he called "terrorists" and the police. These incidents are taking place all over the country, he said.

"Discontent is creeping into the ranks of the French legion which is under Petain's orders."

The chief of the Vichy police, Rene Bousquet issued a statement which said:

"French police forces are fulfilling an increasingly difficult task. They are insufficiently armed against terrorists. They constantly are accused by the Germans of being on the side of the terrorists."

An increasing flood of reports concerning the seriousness of the situation in Germany reached London by way of Switzerland.

Situation Tense

The Journal de Geneve reported that the situation was so tense during the recent "crisis conference" called by Field Marshal General Wilhelm Keitel, chief of staff of the German army, that the entire Death's Head motorized division (Continued on Page Four)

1,000,086 NAZIS MEET DEATH IN BOMBED CITIES

LONDON, Oct. 28—A total of 1,000,086 German civilians have been killed, or are reported missing and believed to have been killed, as a result of Allied air raids since the start of the war and up until last October 1, an Exchange Telegraph Company dispatch from Zurich reported today.

The dispatch quoted a member of the Nazi government statistics office in Berlin as the source of the casualty figures.

SCENE SET FOR SPOOK PARADE

Event Friday Evening May Develop Into Record For Circleville

Circleville's Halloween parade, to move from the high school at 8 o'clock Friday night, may develop into one of the biggest and finest parades Circleville has seen since the last Pumpkin Show in the Fall of 1941.

Dan McClain, parade chairman, said Thursday that he has been told that scores of entries are being prepared, with cash and merchandise prizes to be awarded in 17 different classifications. A grand prize will be given also, $5 for the entry declared to be the best in the parade. After all classes have been judged, the grand prize winner will be chosen from the group of winners in different classifications.

All types of Halloween costumes will be seen in the parade, with several patriotic organizations also participating. Red Cross will be represented with different phases of the Red Cross organization's work to be exemplified.

Mr. McClain has arranged for two musical organizations to participate, the Walnut township and Circleville high school bands being invited to play during the parade.

Judging will be conducted at the band stand in front of the courthouse. Three premiums will be paid in each of the 17 classes, the first prize in each being cash and the second and third awards being merchandise donated by Circleville business houses.

Members of the Circleville police force and several auxiliary policemen augmented by members of Sheriff Charles Radcliff's auxiliary patrol will be on hand to help handle traffic.

20,000 JEWS SLAIN BY GERMANS IN RUSSIA

LONDON, Oct. 28—The London Daily Express said today that the Germans murdered 20,000 Jews in the last few days before evacuating the industrial city of Dnepropetrovsk.

The paper, quoting the Moscow radio, said many thousands of other families who went off into the nearby valleys to escape, died of starvation.

Because of sabotage at the Lenin armament works, hundreds of the plant's workers were executed.

HUNS HARRIED ACROSS RUSSIA, DROOP IN ITALY

Red Army Crashes Ahead Nearly 19 Miles Along 72 Mile Front

ESCAPE ALLEY NARROWS

British Eighth Army Takes Torella, And Americans Capture Riardo

By International News Service
Adolf Hitler had plenty to worry about today.

His armies were being harried in their flight across the Nogais Steppe of the southern Ukraine; other Nazi troops were being battered backward in central Italy; both the civilian morale and that of the "Reichswehr" required bolstering, and fears mounted of an outbreak of complete disorder in occupied France.

Red army mobile units, which crashed forward nearly 19 miles on a 72-mile front extending from the lower Dnieper river to the sea of Azov, slashed at the northern flank and rear of the fleeing German armies. The Soviets lunged forward hard upon the heels of the routed Nazi forces in a drive to clear the invaders from the Nogais Steppe north of the Crimea. Contact between the victorious Russians and battle-weary enemy was reported.

Other German forces reeled backward within the big Dnieper river bend as the encircling arms of a Russian pincer inexorably narrowed their escape corridor to about 90 miles. The vital rail hub of Apostolovo, through which the retreating Nazi troops are routed, was severely battered by the Red air force.

Free 170 Towns

All in all, the Russian army had liberated another 170 towns in their drives which covered most important sectors of the 1,800-mile long eastern front. Southwest of recently-captured Dnepropetrovsk, the Soviets advanced nine miles, while other Red army units northwest of Vitebsk surged forward up to six miles. This latter drive cleared the important Nevel-Usvyatsky road of the Germans.

Allied armies in Italy smashed out further gains on the central sector as they jockeyed for positions from which to launch an all-out drive against the new Mondragone-Vastro line of the Germans. The British Eighth army drove the enemy from the strategic town of Torella, north of San Stefano, and also from Castelmauro, 17 miles northwest of the Bierno, Mafalda also fell, and the American Fifth army captured Riardo, on the western sector of the transpeninsular front.

The free Italian radio at Bari said the Eighth army had advanced another four miles and added:

"The hour is approaching when Allied troops will contact the bulk of the Germans across Italy."

Resistance Stiffens

At any rate, enemy resistance in most sectors was getting more stubborn. But still the Allied advance continued.

The Middle East high command announced that German airborne reinforcements had arrived at the Dodecanese island of Kos just in time to be subjected to machine-gun fire from attacking Allied bombers and fighters.

Directives issued by the German high command to its officers and (Continued on Page Four)

GERMANS ADMIT POSSIBILITY OF QUICK WAR END

LONDON, Oct. 28—The latest issue of the clandestine French newspaper "Liberation" received in London today indicates that German authorities reckon with the possibility of a sudden armistice.

Leave papers born by Nazi troops in France, said the newspaper, contain a clause stating that "in case of an armistice rejoin the nearest garrison."

This measure, it was said, was taken to prevent the chaos which would result from every soldier trying to reach Germany independently.

Future Aggression By Any Nation Or Group To Be Restrained

PARLEY PROVES SUCCESS

Democratic Government May Be Offered To All Except Baltic States

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—It was learned on high authority today that Russia has indicated at the Moscow conference its willingness to cooperate with the United States and Great Britain in maintaining future world peace.

The Soviet government is said to be prepared to accept joint responsibility with this country and Britain in restraining future aggression by any nation or group of nations bent on conquest.

Official Washington considers the meeting of the American, British and Soviet foreign ministers so far has been a definite success.

The satisfactory progress made in the discussions up to date has encouraged the belief in official Washington circles that the Soviet government will be prepared to extend to all Europe, with the probable exception of the Baltic states, the principle of freely-chosen democratic government embodied in the Anglo-American-Russian agreement on Italy.

The tripartite agreement on Italy was announced October 13 in the form of a joint statement by President Roosevelt, British Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin.

The agreement recognized that "nothing can detract from the absolute and untrammelled right of the people of Italy by constitutional means to decide on the Democratic form of government they will eventually have."

Russia is now believed to be willing to extend this principle to the rest of the European continent, except for the Baltic states of Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia. Those territories have already been incorporated into the Soviet union, and little hope is held that Stalin will agree to their restoration as separate states after the war.

Contrary to published reports, however, it is understood the question of the future of those Baltic states has not been raised at the Moscow conference up to the present. Nor has the future of Finland been discussed yet.

Likewise, the diplomatic advice reaching Washington from Moscow have contained no mention of any Soviet demand for a "corridor" to the Aegean sea. It would cause no surprise in Washington if Russia eventually insists on the right of free passage through the Dardanelles, but so far this question has not come up in the Moscow talks.

The discussions appear to be proceeding on the broader basis of general principles. It is considered possible that the detailed application of those principles to specific countries or areas may be left for later consideration, perhaps by President Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin if and when they meet.

Deep fissures were said to be appearing between Germany's high military and political leadership under pressure of defeats in Russia and intensified Allied bombings of the Reich.

The best information reaching Switzerland, said a Geneva dispatch to the Daily Mail, is that the morale of the German nation has taken a swift downward plunge.

"Pessimism and defiance have suddenly taken the place of that unlimited confidence, placid carelessness and unshakable faith in victory that formerly characterized the greater mass of the German people up to the time of the Stalingrad defeat," a special correspondent of the Gazette de Lausanne said.

The article on conditions inside Germany, appearing in the Daily Express, said that the confidence and discipline of the Germans has been seriously shaken and that the populace feels that the Reich has absolutely no chance of winning the war.

France Fears Trouble

Fear of trouble in France was voiced by a spokesman for the government of Marshal Henri Philippe Petain who declared in an address over the Nazi-controlled Vichy radio that "complete disorder is likely to break out in France at any moment."

The Vichy spokesman said a new wave of terrorism was sweeping through France and asserted sabotage was on the increase. He reported numerous clashes between what he called "terrorists" and the police. These incidents are taking place all over the country, he said.

"Discontent is creeping into the ranks of the French legion which is under Petain's orders."

The chief of the Vichy police, Rene Bousquet issued a statement which said:

"French police forces are fulfilling an increasingly difficult task. They are insufficiently armed against terrorists. They constantly are accused by the Germans of being on the side of the terrorists."

An increasing flood of reports concerning the seriousness of the situation in Germany reached London by way of Switzerland.

Situation Tense

The Journal de Geneve reported that the situation was so tense during the recent "crisis conference" called by Field Marshal General Wilhelm Keitel, chief of staff of the German army, that the entire Death's Head motorized division (Continued on Page Four)

1,000,086 NAZIS MEET DEATH IN BOMBED CITIES

LONDON, Oct. 28—A total of 1,000,086 German civilians have been killed, or are reported missing and believed to have been killed, as a result of Allied air raids since the start of the war and up until last October 1, an Exchange Telegraph Company dispatch from Zurich reported today.

The dispatch quoted a member of the Nazi government statistics office in Berlin as the source of the casualty figures.

The total civilians bombed out of their homes and forced to evacuate because of air raids was placed at 6,933,000.

SCENE SET FOR SPOOK PARADE

Event Friday Evening May Develop Into Record For Circleville

Circleville's Halloween parade, to move from the high school at 8 o'clock Friday night, may develop into one of the biggest and finest parades Circleville has seen since the last Pumpkin Show in the Fall of 1941.

Dan McClain, parade chairman, said Thursday that he has been told that scores of entries are being prepared, with cash and merchandise prizes to be awarded in 17 different classifications. A grand prize will be given also, $5 for the entry declared to be the best in the parade. After all classes have been judged, the grand prize winner will be chosen from the group of winners in different classifications.

All types of Halloween costumes will be seen in the parade, with several patriotic organizations also participating. Red Cross will be represented with different phases of the Red Cross organization's work to be exemplified.

Mr. McClain has arranged for two musical organizations to participate, the Walnut township and Circleville high school bands being invited to play during the parade. Judging will be conducted at the band stand in front of the courthouse. Three premiums will be paid in each of the 17 classes, the first prize in each being cash and the second and third awards being merchandise donated by Circleville business houses.

Members of the Circleville police force and several auxiliary policemen augmented by members of Sheriff Charles Radcliff's auxiliary patrol will be on hand to help handle traffic.

20,000 JEWS SLAIN BY GERMANS IN RUSSIA

LONDON, Oct. 28—The latest issue of the clandestine French newspaper "Liberation" received in London today indicates that German authorities reckon with the possibility of a sudden armistice.

Leave papers born by Nazi troops in France, said the newspaper, contain a clause stating that "in case of an armistice rejoin the nearest garrison."

This measure, it was said, was taken to prevent the chaos which would result from every soldier trying to reach Germany independently.

HUNS HARRIED ACROSS RUSSIA, DROOP IN ITALY

Red Army Crashes Ahead Nearly 19 Miles Along 72 Mile Front

ESCAPE ALLEY NARROWS

British Eighth Army Takes Torella, And Americans Capture Riardo

By International News Service
Adolf Hitler had plenty to worry about today.

His armies were being harried in their flight across the Nogais Steppe of the southern Ukraine; other Nazi troops were being battered backward in central Italy; both the civilian morale and that of the "Reichswehr" required bolstering, and fears mounted of an outbreak of complete disorder in occupied France.

Red army mobile units, which crashed forward nearly 19 miles on a 72-mile front extending from the lower Dnieper river to the sea of Azov, slashed at the northern flank and rear of the fleeing German armies. The Soviets lunged forward hard upon the heels of the routed Nazi forces in a drive to clear the invaders from the Nogais Steppe north of the Crimea. Contact between the victorious Russians and battle-weary enemy was reported.

Other German forces reeled backward within the big Dnieper river bend as the encircling arms of a Russian pincer inexorably narrowed their escape corridor to about 90 miles. The vital rail hub of Apostolovo, through which the retreating Nazi troops are routed, was severely battered by the Red air force.

Free 170 Towns

All in all, the Russian army had liberated another 170 towns in their drives which covered most important sectors of the 1,800-mile long eastern front. Southwest of recently-captured Dnepropetrovsk, the Soviets advanced nine miles, while other Red army units northwest of Vitebsk surged forward up to six miles. This latter drive cleared the important Nevel-Usvyaty road of the Germans.

Allied armies in Italy smashed out further gains on the central sector as they jockeyed for positions from which to launch an all-out drive against the new Mondragone-Vastro line of the Germans. The British Eighth army drove the enemy from the strategic town of Torella, north of San Stefano, and also from Castelnuovo, 17 miles northwest of the Biferno. Mafalda also fell, and the American Fifth army captured Riardo, on the western sector of the transpeninsular front.

The free Italian radio at Bari said the Eighth army had advanced another four miles and added:

"The hour is approaching when Allied troops will contact the bulk of the Germans across Italy."

Resistance Stifens

At any rate, enemy resistance in most sectors was getting more stubborn. But still the Allied advance continued.

The Middle East high command announced that German airborne reinforcements had arrived at the Dodecanese island of Kos just in time to be subjected to machine-gun fire from attacking Allied bombers and fighters.

SCHOOL HEALTH REPORT MADE BY BLACKBURN

Commissioner Tells Of Finding Defects In 129 Children

81 PUPILS VACCINATED

Special Attention Paid To Bad Tonsils—Operations Are Performed

A report of work among children of Pickaway county schools during October was given Wednesday to the Pickaway county board of health by Dr. A. D. Blackburn, health commissioner. The board conducted its monthly meeting in its courthouse offices.

Dr. Blackburn reported examination of pupils in Pickaway, Salt-creek, Washington, Ashville and Jackson schools with 240 youngsters given thorough physical tests. Eighty-one children were vaccinated and 77 were given toxoid immunization for diphtheria.

The health board was told that 129 of the children had physical defects, among them being 55 which had teeth difficulties, 44 with poor vision, seven with eye disease, 24 with poor hearing, 43 with enlarged or diseased tonsils, five with minor heart ailments, five with skin diseases, four with enlarged glands and one orthopedic case.

Sixty-five of these children have received corrections for defects as follows: 39 have received dental care, seven have been fitted with glasses and 35 have had their tonsils removed.

"Special care has been taken in these examinations to find those cases of diseased and enlarged tonsils which need immediate care. During October 25 tonsil operations were performed through the health department," Dr. Blackburn declared.

Two cases of scarlet fever were reported from Saltcreek township during the month, the cases were investigated and the families placed under quarantine. All pupils in the school who had been exposed to the disease were examined, and since the first case appeared almost two weeks ago and no more have developed the health officer believes that fear of more cases is ended.

Mrs. Helen Pickens, county nurse, also submitted her report for October, reporting many visits in the interest of patients and assisting the health commissioner in his school inspections and examinations.

CITY JOINS IN CELEBRATION OF U. S. NAVY DAY

Circleville observed Navy Day Wednesday with the remainder of the nation by conducting a program in Memorial Hall during the evening.

Gatherings were held in most of the nation's cities, high officials of the U. S. Navy speaking on various programs on the significance of the day.

Wednesday marked the 168th birthday of the American Navy.

Circleville's program, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, was in the charge of Fred C. Clark. Mr. Clark presented several members of the Columbus Navy recruiting office, all of whom spoke briefly. Included were Chief Petty Officer Joseph W. Huston, Gunner's Mate First Class Frank Ferneau, who discussed the need for many more enlistments in the WAVES organization, the Navy auxiliary, and Gunner's Mate First Class E. I. Beatty, who served in World War I.

Roy Brown, of Circleville, who served 19 years in the Navy, was also presented, speaking briefly.

The meeting was opened by A. V. Osborn, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who in turn presented Mr. Clark. The Rev. Clarence Swearingen of the First Methodist church pronounced the invocation and also the benediction.

C. F. Zaenglein and his high school band added much to the evening's program, playing several marches and patriotic selections.

During Navy Day programs held throughout the country, pledges that American fleets will soon strike telling blows in the Pacific, Atlantic, Mediterranean and in all other oceans and seas of the world were voiced.

Confidence that the job will be done was expressed by leaders in all walks of life during the day and the evening of the Navy's birthday.

President Roosevelt voiced the pledge that more ships and planes will be ready when needed in the war to "protect human life, to restore human decency and to preserve human liberty."

FOUR DRAW FINES

Four persons arrested early Wednesday in the American Hotel on statutory charges were fined

$15 and costs each by Mayor Ben H. Gordon at hearings. They included Wallace O. Vaught and Ollie J. Fugate, soldiers based at Lockbourne army air base, and Mable Plantz and Annabelle Fast, both of Circleville. The two soldiers were committed to the county jail when they were unable to pay their fines, while the women were released after fines and costs were paid.

BEEF SUBSIDY FOR PACKERS STARTS DEC. 1

Federal Grants Range From 50 Cents Up To $1.45 Per Hundred

NO RETAIL PRICE EFFECT

Processors Must Comply With Cattle Payment Rules Set By WFA

A new beef subsidy program, drawn up to aid slaughterers and having no effect on the price of meat paid at the retail counter, becomes effective December 1.

The new program replaces a flat rate subsidy of $1.10 per hundred pounds of livestock irrespective of grade which has been in operation since last June. The new schedule is based on three grades of beef.

The rates provide for subsidies of 50 cents for common, cutter and canner classes of cattle, 90 cents for medium grades, $1 for choice grades and $1.45 for good grades. Processors must pay prices within ranges set by the War Food Administration in order to be eligible for the graduated subsidies. The prices, based on the Chicago level, are choice grades, $15 to $16 per hundred pounds; good $14.25 to $15.25; medium $12 to $13; common $10 to $11, and cutter and canner, $7.45 to $8.45. The subsidy rate was set lower for the choice grade than for the good grade in an effort to discourage feeding of choice cattle because that type requires more feed, labor and time to produce than the good grade.

All producers, truckers, dealers and processors of livestock in the central Ohio area, including Pickaway county, have been called to attend a meeting November 5 at 10 a. m. in the Deshler-Wallick hotel, Columbus, at which time an area Livestock Industry Transportation advisory committee will be selected. The meeting is being called by A. F. Dankert, ODT district manager.

This committee when approved by the Office of Defense Transportation will advise and assist the ODT in directing the movement of motor trucks used in the transportation of livestock to or from points in the area.

Producers, truckers, dealers and processors who raise, buy, sell, transport or handle livestock within the area are entitled to elect and select their representative on the committee.

Included in the area to be served by the committee will be Crawford, Fairfield, Delaware, Franklin, Fayette, Hocking, Hardin, Licking, Knox, Madison, Wyandot, Marion, Ross, Union, Morrow and Vinton counties in addition to Pickaway.

BROWN RATION STAMPS VALID UNTIL DEC. 4

Brown Ration stamps C, D, E and F in Book 3 used for the purchase of meats, cheese, butter, fats, canned fish and canned milk expire Saturday. Stamp G, which became valid October 24, and H which will be good starting Sunday, October 31, will remain valid until December 4.

OPA added a reminder Thursday that Book 1 is rapidly running out. Sugar stamps 15 and 16 valid for five pounds of sugar each, expire Sunday, October 31, while stamp 14 is good only through November 1. The new sugar stamp will be No. 29 in Book 4 marked "sugar", which will be valid for five pounds from November 1 to January 14, 1944.

With the sugar stamps in Book 1 expiring, there will be just one stamp left in that book which will be of use and that is No. 18, the shoe stamp that remains valid for one pair of shoes indefinitely.

On November 1 the airplane stamp in Book 3 will be valid for one pair of shoes and will also be in effect until further notice.

BEEF SUBSIDY FOR PACKERS STARTS DEC. 1

Federal Grants Range From 50 Cents Up To $1.45 Per Hundred

NO RETAIL PRICE EFFECT

Processors Must Comply With Cattle Payment Rules Set By WFA

A new beef subsidy program, drawn up to aid slaughterers and having no effect on the price of meat paid at the retail counter, becomes effective December 1.

The new program replaces a flat rate subsidy of $1.10 per hundred pounds of livestock irrespective of grade which has been in operation since last June. The new schedule is based on three grades of beef.

The rates provide for subsidies of 50 cents for common, cutter and canner classes of cattle, 90 cents for medium grades, $1 for choice grades and $1.45 for good grades. Processors must pay prices within ranges set by the War Food Administration in order to be eligible for the graduated subsidies. The prices, based on the Chicago level, are choice grades, $15 to $16 per hundred pounds; good $14.25 to $15.25; medium $12 to $13; common $10 to $11, and cutter and canner, $7.45 to $8.45.

The subsidy rate was set lower for the choice grade than for the good grade in an effort to discourage feeding of choice cattle because that type requires more feed, labor and time to produce than the good grade.

All producers, truckers, dealers and processors of livestock in the central Ohio area, including Pickaway county, have been called to attend a meeting November 5 at 10 a. m. in the Deshler-Wallick hotel, Columbus, at which time an area Livestock Industry Transportation advisory committee will be selected. HUNS HARRIED ACROSS RUSSIA, DROOP IN ITALY

Red Army Crashes Ahead
Nearly 19 Miles Along
72 Mile Front

soldiers and captured by the Allies told of increasing needs for maintaining morale of the Nazi home and military fronts. The officers were urged to have a heart-to-heart talk with soldiers before the latter went on furlough to his home, and when he returned to his unit.

"Hard shocks await these men at home," the order said. And the soldier was cautioned against spreading reports of what he saw, and also urged to keep up the morale of the home front. Many of the families at home "have been through harder times" even than many frontline soldiers," the bulletin added.

Japs Hard Hit
In the Southwest Pacific, the Allied offensive to expel the Japs from Bougainville in the Solomons was reported by the Tokyo radio as already underway.

The Jap broadcast said amphibious forces landed Wednesday on Mono island, southwest of Shortland island. This latter island lies just south of Bougainville, last enemy stronghold in the Solomons, which has been consistently pounded by Allied air raids.

The third powerful air assault against Jap-held Rabaul in as many days was reported by Gen. Douglas MacArthur. The Allied leader said 101 additional enemy planes were destroyed or damaged in the raid on the strong New Britain base.

PESSIMISM OF HUNS RISES AS ARMIES RETREAT

sion equipped with tanks mounted guard outside the meeting place.

The Berlin correspondent of the Gazette de Lausanne said that it was impossible to exaggerate the disastrous effects of the British and American raids on civilian morale.

Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler who also is minister of interior is doing his utmost to maintain discipline, the correspondent said, but pointed out that no people will continue forever to make sacrifices if it is covered by a fraction of the population.

"These drastic steps will have no effect," said La Revue de Lausanne in reference to the increased Gestapo measures.

"Lack of proper food is undermining the people's health. Absenteeism from factories is increasing. Sabotage abounds. The war has destroyed all family life. Theft is rampant."

ATTEND BANKERS MEET
Among persons attending the meeting of Group Four of the Ohio Bankers' association Wednesday in Chillicothe were George C. Adkins, Durward Dowden, David S. Dunlap, Ray Barnhart of the Second National bank; Clark Will of the Third National bank; and N. E. Reichelderfer, Miss Kitty Mead, Miss Betty Barnes of the Circleville Savings and Banking Co., and Claude Kraft and Mrs. Bellaire White of Ashville.

WILL NAZIS BETRAY LAVAL?

Fallen France's Arch Weaver of Woe
Seen Caught in Web of Own Misdeeds

By WILL LE BARON
Central Press Correspondent
NEW YORK—The master spider in the finely-spun web of intrigue which has intertwined France and Germany has been Pierre Laval. Reports from occupied France, largest and most prized of all German conquests, is to the effect that the Nazis themselves are pondering ways and means of eliminating him from the picture.

The great German ambition is to turn the French people against the Allies. If the fallen nation would embrace Nazism and take up arms against the poised invaders, Hitler and his counselors feel that victory might, after all, be theirs in a sweeping land battle.

From my eight years in France, during most of the time I was acquainted with Laval and dealing with him as the official motion picture producer for the government, I would say that fully 90 per cent of the people of France would like to get their hands on him and wring his neck.

Laval—Cat's-paw
I predict that Hitler will give the French this pleasure, and then attempt to disassociate Nazism from Laval, who has been the Nazi party's cat's-paw in France for at least 12 years.

There has always been something significantly sinister about Laval. His general appearance was so arresting and repulsive that even the most casual passer-by would comment. He was short in stature, hair characteristically untidy, and his eyes piglish in size and shape. His face was swarthy, olive-dark complexion, bespeaking his Moorish ancestry. Square-jawed and tight-lipped Laval has always been a master schemer.

He has been a key figure in international politics since he first tasted of power in 1931, when he became premier of France. Within a year he had resigned and retired from public life, like a spider seeking a dark corner. Behind the scenes he spun his fantastic web of intrigue. During 1935 and 1936 he re-appeared as premier for the second time.

During his first administration, Laval is believed to have made a deal with the Nazis, involving cartels and business rights and patents. Laval emerged as one of the wealthiest and most influential men in all of France. During his second administration, he fashioned a deal with the now broken Italian duce, Mussolini.

He Made His Pile
Soon after resigning as premier during his first regime, Laval became the French representative and special adviser of the great German dye trust, which yielded millions yearly. During his second term he put through the deal with Italy's premier, which was reported to have returned 14,000,000 francs to him personally.

Watching Hitler in Germany and Mussolini in Italy build up mighty dictatorships, Laval became envious and obsessed with the ambition to hold a similar position in France.

Laval patterned his course after that of the Nazi party. Less than a hundred yards from the Arc de Triomphe, his followers touched off

HENRY AND PALM APPOINTED TO RATION PANEL
Appointment of Russell C. Palm, manager of the Pickaway county Dairy Cooperative, and J. Wray Henry, Circleville high school principal, as new members of the Pickaway county War Price and Rationing committee mileage panel was announced Thursday by George D. McDowell, chairman of the rationing committee.

Mr. Palm and Mr. Henry will meet for the first time next week with the other members of the mileage panel.

The new appointees will succeed Eldred A. Cayce and Herman Hill, both of whom have submitted their resignations. The former, manager of the Ralston Purina Co. plant, is removing to St. Louis the first of the year.

REBUILD G.I. SHOES
BOSTON—Savings of approximately $7,000,000 and 20,000,000 square feet of leather will be made by the army's quartermaster corps through the fiscal year ending next June through rebuilding of soldiers' shoes. Col. Samuel I. Zeidner, commanding officer of the Boston quartermaster depot, procurement center for the army's footwear, said 6,000,000 pairs of shoes will be rebuilt in the period.

Paper clothes hangers have saved nearly 1,500,000 pounds of metal, which would have gone into metal hangers.

"Keeping store," Sam Abernethy says, "can teach a person plenty about human nature."

"Now coffee rationing's lifted, folks ain't a-breakin' their necks tryin' to buy all they can. Knowin' they can have it if they want it, they ain't so all-fired anxious to get it."

Sam's right, as usual. I don't crave that second cup half as much as when I couldn't get it. But that's human nature. . . . Like allowing moderate beer in the Army's post exchanges. Instead of leading to more drinking, the OWI report says it the bomb explosion which was to have ignited a nation-wide uprising in September of 1936, aping the Reichstag fire which swept Hitler into power.

The explosion backfired when two policemen on patrol were killed. The police, who had been rather indifferent to political machinations, started a severe and searching investigation. This exposure prevented the installation of a government which would have collaborated with Germany without a semblance of war.

When France fell, the Nazis were reluctant to place Laval in control, preferring the nominal representative of Marshal Henri Philippe Petain, the aged hero of Verdun in World War I. But Laval was not to be ushered out of the picture so easily. He convinced Hitler was forced to place him in actual control.

Laval knows that his authority, even his life, is wholly dependent upon Nazi support. When Hitler et al collapse, Laval will not be able to escape. His present strategy appears to be that of ingratiating himself with the Nazis.

And to the Nazis Laval has become a liability.

THREE ARRESTED AFTER 60 POUND SUGAR THEFT

Investigation conducted Wednesday in New Holland by Sheriff Charles Radcliff and Deputy Vern Pontious led to solution of theft of a 60-pound sack of sugar from the truck owned by the Boecher Trucking Co. of Laurelville. The sugar was taken from the end gate of the truck when its driver was making deliveries to the Red and White store in New Holland.

Sheriff Radcliff said Howard French, 24, and his brother, Clifford, 18, had been arrested and that Howard's mother-in-law, Mrs. Anna Lewis, 42, also of New Holland, had been lodged in jail for the theft and for being accessories. The sheriff said the actual theft was perpetrated by Clifford, who was arrested Wednesday in Washington C. H. He said the youth had been sitting with Howard and Mrs. Lewis in their automobile when the trucker started to unload goods at the grocery. Seeing the sugar, Clifford took it while the driver was in the store.

The sheriff said the trucker noticed the sugar was missing and wrote down the license number of a car which was pulling away as he came out of the store. Check of the license number led to the arrests, the sheriff declaring that Howard French admitted the theft immediately after his arrest.

All the sugar was recovered, 50 pounds of it being found in the Fayette county home of Howard's mother, whose name the sheriff did not obtain, and the other 10 pounds in Howard's home at New Holland.

Sheriff William Icenhower of Fayette county worked with the local officers in their investigation. He wants Clifford French as soon as Pickaway county is through with its case against him, a tire stolen from Washington C. H. being found in his home.

ILLINOIS MINES IDLE
An estimated 6,000 miners were reported idle in Illinois. Reports from UMW district 12 at Springfield indicated that most of the 22,000 miners in the Illinois fields would walk out before the week end. Members of the Progressive Miners of America, AFL, also were expected to walk out in sympathy.

The closing of two more strip mines near Brazil, Ind., brought the number of idle miners in Indiana to 6,000, while the strike of 150 more diggers in the Harlan fields brought Kentucky's figure to nearly 5,000.

Nine mines were closed in West Virginia as the strikes spread to the southern fields with 5,400 men idle. The strikes spread to Virginia, and it was feared that 18,000 miners might walk out in the St. Charles fields.

The third powerful air assault against Jap-held Rabaul in as many days was reported by Gen. Douglas MacArthur. The Allied leader said 101 additional enemy planes were destroyed or damaged in the raid on the strong New Britain base.

But that's human nature... Like allowing moderate beer in the Army's post exchanges. Instead of leading to more drinking, the OWI report says it works out just the opposite—often as not the men choose soda-pop or milk, with beer right there and no restrictions on it.

But if it wasn't there, like in the last War, the story might be altogether different.

From where I sit, that's how it is with Americans. Tell 'em they can't have a thing and by golly, they'll find ways to get it. But admit their right to have it, and their own good sense will lead to moderation.

GAS EXPLOSION VICTIM IN "FAIR" CONDITION

Emmett Ebenhack, of Urbana, burned about the face Tuesday when a gasoline tank under a filling station in which he was working exploded, is reported to be in "fair" condition in the Urbana hospital. His parents, M. and Mrs. Marcus Ebenhack of Williamsport, contacted the hospital Wednesday evening and were told that he was badly burned, but was given a fair chance to recover. Ebenhack, who formerly lived in Williamsport, is the husband of the former Martha Hitler of Washington township.

DRAFT APPEALED

Selective Service board announced Thursday the appeal of the 1-A classification of Marvin Fullen, Achville Route 2, by the Columbus Packing Co., his employer. Fullen is essential in the meat packing industry, the Columbus firm declares.

TEACHERS AID PROGRAM

New Issue To Be Put In Use Beginning Monday,
Board Warns

Registration for War Ration Book 4 is progressing smoothly in Circleville and in Pickaway county where school officials are in charge of the sign up. Since new books are to be put into use next Monday, it is important that all persons appear at the high school nearest them either Thursday or Friday.

Elmer Stebleton, chief clerk of the rationing office, said 3,587 books were issued Wednesday afternoon and evening at Circleville high school, the program moving along without any difficulty. All teachers in the city system are cooperating as are all teachers in the rural area.

The sign up in Circleville started at 1 p. m. Wednesday and continued through 9 o'clock. During the last hour the number of persons seeking books lagged.

Registration was resumed at 1 p. m. Thursday to continue until 6 p. m. with the same hour schedule prevailing Friday.

County schools will remain open until 9 p. m. Thursday, using the 1 to 6 p. m. schedule Friday.

Any one in the county who does not obtain Book 4 from the schools this week may obtain a book for each member of the family by going directly to the rationing board office on or after November 8. Book 3 must be produced in order to obtain Book 4.

When the registration is closed the schools all the records and extra books will be returned to the board office and checked. Because of this it is impossible to begin immediately issuing books through the board to belated applicants.

Holders of Book 4 may begin using them Monday for purchase of rationed processed food and sugar, but if they failed to register at their school then they will have to wait until the local board is in position to issue the books.

Thereafter persons discharged from military service and newborn babies may obtain their ration books through the local board by furnishing discharge papers or leaving birth certificates shown.

Persons whose last names begin with the letters H through O are to register Thursday, and all others, including those of the A through G group who failed to appear Wednesday, to appear Friday.

SHAW FIGURING IN COLUMBUS CONTESTS

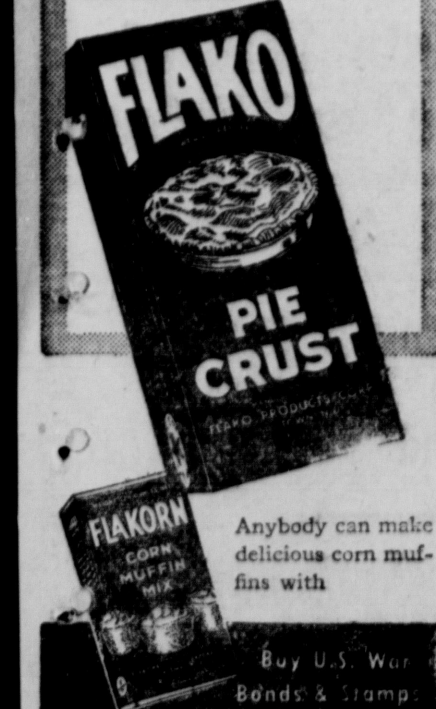

The name of William Shaw, a former Williamsport man, is figuring prominently in Columbus' torrid race for mayor between Sheriff Jacob Sandusky and City Auditor James Rhodes.

Rhodes in an address Wednesday night at the 14th Ward Republican club said that Sandusky is "the friend of the slot machine interests", and "takes his orders and obeys the mandates handed him by slot machine kings".

Rhodes named Shaw and other men named Williams and Warner and Attorney Jack Chester as leaders in the slot machine organization who are backing the Sandusky candidacy.

Over 100 substances come under the name of sugar, such as glucose, sucrose, fructose, lactose, maltose, etc.

EXTEND MEAT. You can make meat go further and save ration points, by topping thrifty cuts, left-overs, stews with a tender, crisp crust of Flako. If your grocer hasn't any Flako (or Flakorn) today, check with him tomorrow.

Wants It Replayed

AMOS ALONZO STAGG, veteran coach who now teaches the College of Pacific Gridders, wants the recent College of Pacific-Southern California game replayed. So Cal. won the game, 6 to 0, although Pacific scored a touchdown only to have it called back by a penalty. So Cal. officials are interested in replaying the game in December. Stagg is shown above as he was honored before that game. (International)

The sign up in Circleville started at 1 p. m. Wednesday and continued through 9 o'clock. During the last hour the number of persons seeking books lagged.

Registration was resumed at 1 p. m. Thursday to continue until 6 p. m. with the same hour schedule prevailing Friday.

County schools will remain open until 9 p. m. Thursday, using the 1 to 6 p. m. schedule Friday.

Any one in the county who does not obtain Book 4 from the schools this week may obtain a book for each member of the family by going directly to the rationing board office on or after November 8. Book 3 must be produced in order to obtain Book 4.

When the registration is closed to the schools all the records and extra books will be returned to the board office and checked. Because of this it is impossible to begin immediately issuing books through the board to belated applicants.

Holders of Book 4 may begin using them Monday for purchase of rationed processed food and sugar, but if they failed to register at their school then they will have to wait until the local board is in position to issue the books.

Thereafter persons discharged from military service and new-born babies may obtain their ration books through the local board by furnishing discharge papers or leaving birth certificates shown.

Persons whose last names begin with the letters H through O are to register Thursday, and all others, including those of the A through G group who failed to appear Wednesday, to appear Friday.

SHAW FIGURING IN COLUMBUS CONTESTS

The name of William Shaw, a former Williamsport man, is figuring prominently in Columbus' torrid race for mayor between Sheriff Jacob Sandusky and City Auditor James Rhodes.

Rhodes in an address Wednesday night at the 14th Ward Republican club said that Sandusky is "the friend of the slot machine interests," and "takes his orders and obeys the mandates handed him by slot machine kings."

Rhodes named Shaw and other men named Williams and Warner and Attorney Jack Chester as leaders in the slot machine organization who are backing the Sandusky candidacy.

Over 100 substances come under the name of sugar, such as glucose, sucrose, fructose, lactose, maltose, etc.

EXTEND MEAT. You can make meat go further and save ration points, by topping thrifty cuts, left-overs, stews with a tender, crisp crust of Flako. If your grocer hasn't any Flako (or Flakorn) today, check with him tomorrow.

Wants It Replayed

AMOS ALONZO STAGG, veteran coach who now teaches the College of Pacific graders, wants the recent College of Pacific-Southern California game replayed. So Cal. won the game, 6 to 0, although Pacific scored a touchdown only to have it called back by a penalty. So Cal. officials are interested in replaying the game in December. Stagg is shown above as he was honored before that game. (International)

HEAVY RECEIPTS ARE FEATURE OF STOCK AUCTION

Wednesday was another busy day at the Pickaway county Livestock Cooperative's sale. Hog receipts ran only five short of 1,000, while 388 sheep, 142 cattle and 73 calves went through the yards.

Good steers and heifers, returning to the market in the last two weeks after an absence, brought top prices of $15.60.

Top bid for hogs was $14.10 for 180 to 260 pounds offerings, although lights brought $13.50 to $14 and heavyweights were topped by a $14 bid.

Calves were bought for $14.10 and sheep for as high as $13.55.

WHEN BERLIN BREAKS

EVERY historic city has a character of its own, and its own form of behavior in crucial times. Everybody knows, for example, how the British behaved when it looked as if London would be destroyed. They did not give way to hysterical fright, but were calm and steady, as they had been in their perilous flight back home across the Channel with their war material all lost. And Americans probably would conduct themselves in the same way. Both nations are inclined to rise in emergencies above their normal selves.

The Chinese, as they have proved again and again, can "take it." The Japanese are not so good at that, but more easily upset.

Well, what of the Germans? Their psychology under great strain is sure to become a big factor in this war, sooner or later. There is not much doubt about the steadiness of German soldiers in uniform and in battle, but what of the German people at home?

An article by Gunnar T. Pihl of the North American Newspaper Alliance, written from Stockholm, says that Berlin is always a nervous temperamental city. The western Germans endure bombing pretty well, but the Berliners seem like a different breed. They are inclined to sullenness and apathy, says Pihl. There have been no riots in Berlin, he declares, and there will be only one—the last! And this verdict, if accurate, forecasts an easier occupation than many people expect.

THANKFULNESS

PEOPLE have started thinking about Thanksgiving—what day is best for this festival, and what they have to be thankful for. Some seem inclined to be a little bitter about it. What reason have they for gratitude, they ask, when there is death, terror and destruction almost everywhere?

This is largely a personal problem, in which everyone has a right to his own conclusion. For them there can be only sympathy and an effort to relieve their grief or fear.

But in general, when the afflictions of this comparatively fortunate nation are honestly compared with those of most other nations in the world's present plight, fair-minded people may conclude that there is more reason than usual for honest gratitude. There is so much bitter tragedy that so many of us escape.

Mr. Stalin Meets a Tough Customer in Our Mr. Hull | Silent Joe a Gabby Guy Compared to Tennessean

By HELEN ESSARY
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON—Today's questions in Washington—Does Mr. Stalin have an idea of the sort of man Cordell Hull really is?

Does Mr. Stalin know that the United States secretary of state is fundamentally a Tennessee sharpshooter?

Does he know that he is a Tennessee mountaineer who gets his man with the skill of a mountaineer and plus the vim of a Canadian mounted policeman?

Does Mr. Stalin know that no American species can be closer-lipped, more dogged, more tenacious than a Tennessee mountaineer? That a Russian who won't tell what's on his mind is a babbling brook compared with a Tennessee mountaineer who won't tell what's on his mind?

Does Mr. Stalin know that beautiful, esthetic profile of the United States secretary of state hides a tougher toughness than lurks behind the walrus mustache of a Soviet premier?

Mr. Stalin never tells anybody anything at all as to what he is going to do. He merely does it. Nor does Mr. Stalin tell anybody what he has done or why he did it. He hides his time and then he strikes again. His belief that "it's deeds and not words that are important" is also an old Tennessee conviction.

At the current tri-partite meeting Mr. Stalin is going to meet his personal and diplomatic match in the canny, cautious, carnivorous Mr. Hull.

Important is this question—Has it occurred to Mr. Churchill that his open meddling into United States politics by way of an indirect attack on the reports of the five traveling senators is a kind of "island hopping" that will make no American really love Britain more.

Moreover, Mr. Churchill, I can't believe it unpatriotic or traitorous for Americans, British, Chinese or Italians to disagree out loud now

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON

GREEK STRIFE SPURRED

WASHINGTON — The American public doesn't know it, but blame for current civil war in Greece traces direct to the doorstep of the United States and its new policy of following the British policy of king-bowing. Here is the inside story, as told by uncensored diplomatic dispatches.

More than a year ago, a British colonel, sent as a sapper to blow up a railroad bridge between Athens and Salonika, failed to make connection with British naval units which were to take him out of Greece, and was forced to remain there. For one year he led and mingled with Greek guerillas, finally making his way back to Cairo this last Summer.

In Cairo he reported that while the Greek underground controlled much of the country away from the main highways and cities, the chief thing which held back greater anti-Nazi insurrection was British-American support for King George II.

George II, sponsor and abettor of the hated Metaxis dictatorship, had been brought to the U. S. A., wine and dined by President Roosevelt, and groomed to take over Greece after the Nazis were driven out. This, the British colonel reported, did not go down well with fighting Greeks, who could not see much difference between Nazi rule and royal Greek rule.

Following this, the Greek underground groups sent representatives to Cairo. Simultaneously, George Exindariis, representative of old line Greek political parties, was persuaded by the British colonel to come to Cairo, independently of the underground leaders.

NO KING FOR GREECE

Whereupon, the seven underground leaders, meeting with Exindariis in Cairo, agreed that the Greek people should shun politics, and concentrate on the enemy, and that King George should remain out of the picture. He should be given a regular allowance, they declared, but should not come back to Greece until the Greek people had had a plebiscite after the war on whether they wanted a monarchy or a republic.

The underground leaders drew up a protocol to this effect, and handed it to the Greek cabinet. In a joint meeting it was unanimously approved. This was one of the few unanimous decisions taken by the Greek cabinet recently. Even the prime minister, a close friend of the king's, signed the protocol. However, because he was so close to the king, he asked that the vice prime minister present it to him.

After receiving the protocol, King George invited the cabinet to a crown council, at which the underground leaders set forth the sentiment of the Greek people and warned that any other policy than a plebiscite regarding a monarchy would plunge Greece into civil war.

King George listened politely, replied in effect:

"Gentlemen, I thank you for your courtesy and enlightenment. I shall give my answer after consulting my friends Winston Churchill and President Roosevelt."

ROOSEVELT AND KING

Meanwhile, Alexander Kirk, U. S. ambassador to Egypt and Greece, had been dropping quiet and persistent hints that

Overweight Treatment

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

THERE HAVE been several classical forms of treatment of overweight, which can roughly be divided into two classes—one based on the theory that overweight is due to a disturbance of the internal glands and that giving one or other remedy by mouth corrects the difficulty, and the other the simple and plain idea that a person gains weight because he eats too much.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

The first of these methods depends on the administration of thyroid extract or pituitary extract and works all right in the proper cases which I am bound to say seem to me very few.

The principle trouble in treating the second class of cases—those who are overweight because they eat too much—is that right at the outset they say they hardly eat a thing. According to them they have the appetite of birds and very small birds at that, and they come to their performances at the table with the thin member of the family who, they say, eats enough to keep an elephant going.

Dr. Newburgh's Method

If, however, you want to get the real lowdown on this group do what my friend Dr. Newburgh, at Ann Arbor, does with them. He locks one in a room and sees to it that only so much food is brought to him a day. About the end of the twelfth hour a howl goes up that sounds as if the Michigan Central were passing under a culvert. If Dr. Newburgh can keep one in that room long enough he reduces him from 300 to 150 pounds simply by giving him just what a bird would eat.

I was interested in a recent report that the class of overweight people who were easiest to reduce were girls in their teens and recently married women. Later they didn't care. After forty papa goes to the bowling alley and mamma stays home and hits the candy box.

Well, the latest form of treatment for overweight is to give them something to take their appetite away. The substance is called amphetamine sulphate. This is taken an hour before meals and then you don't eat hardly any meals.

Stops Stomach Motion

What the stuff does apparently is to stop all motion, or nearly all motion, in the stomach. It also has a psychic effect in that you do not feel like eating. The description of a perfectly beautiful steak fresh from the butchers, which has been procured by saving rare coupons until it hurts, doesn't give the subject of the experiment the slightest twitch. Not a drop of saliva moistens her lips.

The system seems to work out according to the investigators. The average weight loss is reported at two pounds a week.

What the final outcome of the treatment will be I naturally don't know. It is better than being locked in a room for six months and having nothing but some lettuce and tea brought to you, but anything that you take by mouth that makes a blueberry pie look like a mud puddle cake hasn't much future in my opinion.

CHAPTER FORTY-EIGHT

"RUTH HASN'T said for sure when the wedding will be," Jack replied to Adam. "But I've a hunch she'll make it soon. That explosion last night sort of blew her into my arms. We felt it, you know, even out at the high school."

"Then it's an ill explosion that blows no girl where she belongs, if I may paraphrase," said Adam, and laughed. "When you go down, will you tell Mrs. Potter I'd like to see her?"

"I can't," said Jack. "She didn't come to work today."

"Why?"

"I couldn't say," Jack replied. "All I know is that the cook said he reckoned she was sleeping late on account of the explosion."

"Okay," said Adam. "She deserves a day off."

He watched Jack go, and then picked up some papers. But he couldn't concentrate. His mind kept turning to other matters. Uncle Joseph Leigh's portrait flat on its back on the floor. Shattered glass. Brenda and Aunt Mary out at the Leigh place all alone. Darn it all, they needed a man out there to help them get cleaned up.

He got to his feet. He got his hat, and walked into the outer office.

"Ruth," he said. "I'm going out. Expect me back when you see me, and—"

"Oh, yes, I almost forgot," said Ruth. "Mrs. Allen John Harrington wants you for dinner tonight. Her husband's been called away, and she—"

"Call her," said Adam, and tell her that from now on 'asking Adam' is out! A game that's gone out of fashion. He blew Ruth a kiss from the doorway. "And for Pete's sake stop stalling around with Jack Vinton. Go on and marry the lad—with my blessings, and anything for a wedding present you name!"

He was gone, the door closing behind him with a cheerful little click. Ruth sat perfectly still, staring after him. And then an odd thing happened, something that made her sit up with a start. "Why, he seems like an older brother, or—or a young uncle, all of a sudden!" she said half aloud. Then, her heart beating high, she picked up the telephone and asked for Jack Vinton's department.

"That you, Jack?" she said.

"Yes," said Jack. "What's up?"

"I want you to come up," said Ruth, laughing.

"I was just there," said Jack.

"What the heck—"

"I want you to come up here this minute," said Ruth, "and ask me to marry you."

"Oh, boy!" Jack exclaimed. "Stay right where you are! I'm on my way!"

Ruth hung up the receiver and smiled. Just as Brenda Leigh also smiled a little later when she opened the front door to Adam.

"Pardon the broken glass," she said, "but we had a little blowout this way last night."

"So I heard," said Adam. "I thought maybe I could be of help around the place. Hanging pictures, you know—things like that. A man's pretty handy at times, believe it or not."

Brenda stood perfectly still, her head thrown back, her eyes sparkling. "Adam North," she said, "I've just written that man in New York that I'm not coming back—that I'm staying right here until I—die. And if I die a dried-up, cranky old maid, it'll be your fault."

"You an old maid?" said Adam. "Don't be silly, darling!" He took her in his arms. "Brenda, will you marry me now—today?"

"Yes," said Brenda, "just as soon as I fix my hair and put on a little color." She snuggled. "Goah, Adam. I'm happy," she said. "Even if it did take two saboteurs, a near-murder and an explosion to make you propose."

"I've been wanting to propose for a long while," said Adam, "but what with the world in the shape it's in, and everything so uncertain, I sort of thought maybe I'd better let you go on with your career."

"Darn my career!" said Brenda. "I'm sticking here, making marriage my vocation—and writing only when the spirit moves me. Kiss me, Adam."

Adam did so—just as Aunt Mary Mosher came in to ask a question. But she never asked it. She saw Brenda in Adam's arms, and tipped out, thanking God Miss Brenda wasn't going to die an old maid after all.

Back in Linville Bill Potter, some blueprints in one hand and a bunch of papers in the other, ran down the stairs of the Potter cottage, dashed into the living room and tripped over the vacuum cleaner cord.

"Darn!" he said explosively. "What on earth happened?" Susan Potter called from the rear hall.

"Only what, Bill?"

"Only don't forget to powder your nose," said Bill. "I like you with a powdered nose—and tricky earrings."

"And my new hair-do?"

"I'm nuts about it," said Bill. "And about you, too." He walked to the door. "During your off moments," he called back, "see if I can get Adam and Brenda to make a match of it."

"Yes, my lord and master," said Susan, and smiled.

She had a hunch Adam and Brenda weren't going to need any help—not after all Brenda had told her about what had happened last night.

Results are usually so good because Vicks Vapo-Rol relieves congestion, corrects abnormal dryness, makes breathing easier—and so helps promote good, refreshing sleep! ENJOY THE COMFORT VICKS VA-TRO-NOL—tonight if you need it. Use as directed.

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

If you have a tough time getting to sleep tonight because transient congestion fills up your nose and you have to breathe through your mouth—a few drops of VICKS VA-TRO-NOL up each nostril should help you in a hurry! You can feel it bring relief!

QUIZ FOR KIDS!

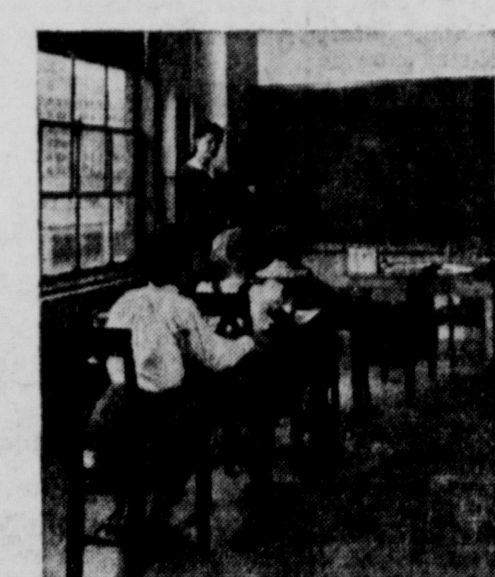

... and parents, too! Questions and Answers that are extra important today when so much depends on America's eyesight

How many of these children will have good eyesight at twenty? Only three if these children are average! Two college students in five have defective eyesight, and it may be worse as schools speed up wartime education. Proper care during growing years can help ward off eye troubles later.

Which one is headed for trouble? Molly! She's risking eyestrain if she persists in reading on the floor. She may be only getting a tenth as much light as John is getting in the chair. If she sat in another chair, under the light, she could read more comfortably and with less danger of eyestrain!

Alan can't see the writing on the blackboard. Should he quit school, get a front row seat or have his eyes examined? Alan should have his eyes examined right away. If he needs glasses, he doesn't know what he's missing. They'll help him in games and sports, as well as in school.

This girl is getting extra light free. True or false? True! Dust and dirt on bulbs, shades, and reflectors can cut light in half without your realizing what's the matter! By being a good little housekeeper and wiping them clean, Libby is getting extra light for the same electricity!

OPTIMISM MARKS NOTRE DAME'S GRIDIRON SQUAD

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 28—Unusual optimism over the Naval academy game in Cleveland Saturday emanated from the Notre Dame campus today. Coach Frank Leahy announced "the Irish went through their best workout of the season." With semester examinations completed, the full Irish squad was on the field.

Bob Kelly, freshman right half-back, was declared eligible after making up V-12 academic shortcomings and will be used as a substitute for Julie Rykovich against the Navy.

SAMMY ANGOTT RETAINS HIS LIGHTWEIGHT TITLE

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 28—Sammy Angott, the Louisville slugger, retained his NBA world's lightweight boxing title today after winning a unanimous 15-round decision from Luther (Sluggo) White, Baltimore Negro.

Two judges gave Angott every round. The referee, Benny Whitman, scored 14 rounds for Angott. Upwards of 15,000 fans filled Hollywood park to see the title bout, California's first 135-pound match since 1914.

Angott weighed 134, White 135.

BIG GRID CARD SCHEDULED FOR BIG TEN FANS

COLUMBUS, Oct. 28—A tasty gridiron dish is on the menu Saturday when eight of the nine members of the Western Conference hit their mid-season stride against each other.

Undefeated Purdue tangles with a weak Wisconsin eleven; an improved Indiana contingent, led by Robert "Hunchy" Hoernschemeyer, invades battered and victory-starved Ohio State; Otto Graham and Northwestern meets the toothless Minnesota Gophers and powerful Michigan will be entertained by Illinois.

With the exception of Purdue, Michigan and Northwestern, the standings show the teams bunched together like a group of refugees, and a win or a loss would radically change the positions.

At present the youthful Bucks are ranked in the same position as the low man on the totem pole, but with Iowa idle, a victory over the Hoosiers would lift the Bucks out of the mud and at least into partial sunlight.

However, with such stalwarts as Dean Sensenbaur, Gordon Appleby and others on the injury list, the chances of the Bucks taking the Hoosiers into camp seem slight.

Experts around the Western circuit credit the Hoosiers with being the most improved team in the group and the record proves this. After a 7-7 deadlock with Miami, and a 14-6 defeat administered by Northwestern, the Hoosiers came back to whip Nebraska, 54-13, tied Iowa 7-7 and shellacked Wisconsin, 34-0.

It looks like another gloomy Saturday for Paul Brown as the Hoosiers will continue to improve at the expense of his Bucks.

HOOSIERS PASS; PIHOS TO GO BACK TO LINE

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 28—New plays and offensive fundamentals occupied the attention today of the Indiana Hoosiers in their drills for the Ohio State game. Pete Pihos, all-star end who scored three touchdowns as a fullback last Saturday, probably will be shifted back to his old position to bolster the Hoosier line.

It looks like another gloomy Saturday for Paul Brown as the Hoosiers will continue to improve at the expense of his Bucks.

GO PHERS HAVE TRIO OF NEW BACKS IN ACTION

ZIVIC FAVORED, 9-5

CHICAGO, Oct. 28—Fritzie Zivic, former welterweight champion of Pittsburgh, Pa., was ruled a 9 to 5 favorite today to win his 10-round boxing bout from 21-year-old Bobby Richardson of Cleveland, O., in the main event of the Chicago stadium card tomorrow night. Both fighters will taper off their training with light exercise today.

TIGERS READY FOR M'CLAIN 14

Red And Black Coach Will Start Young At Mader's End Position

Circleville high Tigers will take the field at 8 o'clock tonight bent on gaining a victory over Greendale McClain's strong Tigers. The Red and Black outfit is after a victory bigger than 13 to 6, this being the score Wilmington tallied in copping a victory over the McClainers coached by John Greishemer.

Although Dave Mader and Bobby Grubb are definitely out of action with broken wrist and broken collarbone, respectively, the remainder of the Tiger outfit is in pretty good condition. Freck Heath's ouchy knee has responded to treatment, and he will be ready to carry the mail.

Coach Roy Black has indicated that his starting backfield probably be Sims, Heath, Boggs and Morgan. He has also indicated that Mack Young will probably take over right end at the outset of the game.

Starting lineups are expected to look something like this:

Take over right end at the outset of the game.
Starting lineups are expected to look something like this:
Circleville	Greenfield
Dade	LE	White
L'shimer	LT	Uhl
Wells	LG	Loggann
Valentine	C	Pease
M'head	RG	Head
Moore	RT	Glassner
Young	RE	Watts

Boggs	RH	Paige
Morgan	F	Williams

BERTELLI SORRY HE'LL MISS BIG TILT WITH ARMY

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 28—War brought Angelo Bertelli a great disappointment even before the great forward passer of Notre Dame really gets into the thick of it, he admitted today.

"I sure would like to play in that army game," angular Angelo, whom the rest of the players call Bert, said as he prepared to play what probably will be his last football game for the Irish Ramblers.

"Besides," he added rather fully, "the game against Army is the only one my family (two married sisters and his mother) and most of my friends get to see me play in."

Angelo Bertelli, the 19-year-old sharpshooter from Springfield, Mass., who has flung 315 aerials in 25 games for a pass completion record of 165, plays his final game for the Irish against Navy in Cleveland Saturday.

Then he hightails it for Notre Dame to pack his belongings and sometime Monday he will report for boot training in the U. S. Marines at Parris Island, S. C.

SCOTT, HURRICANE STAR, TO GIVE UP FOOTBALL

Leroy Scott, Wilmington Hurricane's big fullback who was stopped cold last Friday night although his team won 15 to 0 from the Tigers, has probably given up football, and probably school.

Scott didn't like it a bit when the Red and Black forward wall smacked him down time after time, and he let his feelings bubble over a couple times.

OPTIMISM MARKS NOTRE DAME'S GRIDIRON SQUAD

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 28—Unusual optimism over the Naval academy game in Cleveland Saturday emanated from the Notre Dame campus today. Coach Frank Leahy announced "the Irish went through their best work of the season." With semester examinations completed, the full Irish squad was on the field.

Bob Kelly, freshman right half-back, was declared eligible after making up V-12 academic shortcomings and will be used as a substitute for Julie Rykovich against the Navy.

SAMMY ANGOTT RETAINS HIS LIGHTWEIGHT TITLE

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 28—Sammy Angott, the Louisville slugger, retained his NBA world's lightweight boxing title today after winning a unanimous 15-round decision from Luther (Sluggo) White, Baltimore Negro.

Two judges gave Angott every round. The referee, Benny Whitman, scored 14 rounds for Angott. Upwards of 15,000 fans filled Hollywood ball park to see the title bout. California's first 135-pound match since 1914. Angott weighed 134, White 135.

TIGERS READY FOR M'CLAIN

Red And Black Coach Will Start Young At Mader's End Position

Circleville high Tigers will take the field at 8 o'clock tonight bent on gaining a victory over Greer field McClain's strong Tigers. The Red and Black outfit is after a victory bigger than 13 to 6, this being the score Wilmington tallied in coping a victory over the McClainers coached by John Greishelmer.

Although Dave Mader and Bobby Grubb are definitely out of action with broken wrist and broken collarbone, respectively, the remainder of the Tiger outfit is in pretty good condition. Freck Heath's ouchy knee has responded to treatment, and he will be ready to carry the mail.

Coach Roy Black has indicated that his starting backfield probably be Sims, Heath, Boggs and Morgan. He has also indicated that Mack Young will probably take over right end at the outset of the game.

Starting lineups are expected to look something like this:

Circleville	Greenfield
Dade	White
Lshimer	Uhl
Wells	Loggann
Valentine	Pease
Mhead	Head
Moore	Glassner
Young	Watts
Sims	Taylor
Heath	Merced
Boggs	Pa
Morgan	Williams

BERTELLI SORRY HE'LL MISS BIG TILT WITH ARMY

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 28—War brought Angelo Bertelli a great disappointment even before the great forward passer of Notre Dame really gets into the thick of it, he admitted today.

"I sure would like to play in that army game," angular Ang, whom the rest of the players call Bert, said as he prepared to play what probably will be his last football game for the Irish Ramblers.

"Besides," he added rather wistfully, "the game against Army is the only one my family (two married sisters and his mother) and most of my friends get to see me play in."

Angelo Bertello Bertelli, the year-old sharpshooter from Springfield, Mass., who has flung 315 aerials in 25 games for a pass completion record of 165, plays his final game for the Irish against Navy in Cleveland next Saturday.

Then he hightails it for Notre Dame to pack his belongings and sometime Monday he will report for boot training in the U. S. Marines at Parris Island, S. C.

SCOTT, HURRICANE STAR, TO GIVE UP FOOTBALL

Leroy Scott, Wilmington Hurricane's big fullback who was stopped cold last Friday night although his team won 18 to 0 from the Tigers, has probably given up football, and probably school, too.

Scott didn't like it a bit when the Red and Black forward wall smacked him down time after time, and he let his feelings bubble over a couple times.

The Negro junior wrecked his automobile Monday and informed Coach George Houck of the Hurricane school that he would probably find a job so he could pay for its repair. He hasn't been in school this week.

Too bad Scott's wreck couldn't have been a week earlier; the Tigers could have set their defense to stop the entire Wilmington offensive instead of just Mr. Scott.

TROJANS LOSE QUARTET OF FINEST ATHLETES

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 28—The University of Southern California powerhouse football machine was minus four sparkplugs today.

Four regular gridgers, who have been the backbone of the Trojan's highly-successful season, left for the east coast to continue marine and naval officer training.

They were Capt. Ralph Heywood, left end; Mickey McCordie, quarterback and all-coast halfback last year, and Peter MacCall, letterman right end. The trio was transferred to Farris Island, S. C.

WALKER, O'CONNOR

Helen Walker, one of Hollywood's rising screen stars and Ronald O'Connor, new juvenile actor, are two headliners for "What's New?" in the entertainment world, Saturday at 6 p. m. over the Blue network. From Washington, Jim Ameche will interview Mrs. Mark Clark, wife of the famed General who is in command of the Amer-5th Army in Italy.

As previously announced, Ezio Pinza, Metropolitan Opera basso, and Dinah Shore, "What's New?" regular guest singer, will be on the full-hour broadcast hosted by Don Ameche.

Screen star Helen Walker will appear with Don Ameche in a dramatic sketch. The blonde, blue-eyed actress made her screen debut in "Lucky Jordan" and will soon be seen in "The Good Fellows," her second film venture. Miss Walker won her acting laurels in Summer stock and has appeared in such productions as "Bill of Divorcement," "Personal Appearance," and "Pygmalion." A little more than a year ago, the young actress attempted Broadway and managed to take over the understudy role for Dorothy Maguire in "Claudia."

"TOUJOURS LAMOUR"

One of Charlie McCarthy's old flames will be rekindled when little Lamour drops into the program for a quick visit on Sunday. She'll meet Edgar Bergen, Mortimer Snerd, William Gaxton and Victor Moore, the Pied Pipers, and Ray Noble's orchestra during the half-hour which is heard over NBC at 7 p. m.

The show will originate in Hollywood once more after a two weeks visit in Radio City, New York. One of the surprises of the trip to Bergen was the amazing reception tendered Mortimer Snerd on personal appearances as well as before the eastern studio audience. Everyone couldn't seem to get enough of Mortimer, which caused the ventriloquist to pull him out of his suitcase again this week.

ABBOTT AND COSTELLO

Abbott and Costello with Veronica Lake as their guest star will be back on the air Thursday, November 4, 9 p. m. over NBC, following an absence from the air occasioned by the illness of Lou Costello.

A year ago in October, Abbott and Costello, with Miss Lake as their guest star, went on the air. It was their first starring vehicle in many years of show business, except for one brief stint, when they had replaced Fred Allen for the Summer.

RADIO NEWS NOTES

Switch in movie dramas scheduled by the "Star Playhouse" (ex-"Hollywood Theatre") has been made necessary by Charles Ruggles' being called to Arizona for Technicolor sequences in his Paramount film, "Incendiary Blonde." Ruggles, first set to appear the week of November 1 in "The Devil and Miss Jones," will delay his "Star Playhouse" appearance till the week of November 22. Technicolor cameras are so scarce that whenever one is available, it has priority over everything else.

Principals of the Durante-Moore Friday CBS show are keeping busy on overseas broadcasts. Jimmy Durante making appearances with Bing Crosby on the NBC "G. I. Journal," and Georgia Gibbs on the "Command Performance" series.

Donald Dame, singer on "Salute to Youth" over NBC Tuesday nights, who was recently signed by the Metropolitan Opera, will be a guest soloist on "Music for an Hour" over MBS Sunday, October 31.

Groucho Marx will bring Screen Star Lupino to his CBS "Blue Ribbon Town" program on November 6, airing from the Marine air station at El Toro, Calif.

Wally Brown, double-talking comedian who was recently discovered by the films, will be Dinah Shore's guest on her program over CBS Thursday at 8:30 p. m. Wally replaces Phil Silvers, originally scheduled.

Jimmy Cash, featured vocalist of the Burns and Allen show will sing the new hit, "For the First Time," on the CBS broadcast, Tuesday, November 2.

Bomber cameras are synchronized with bomb release mechanisms so that the bombs can be photographed at every stage of their flight, and by means of a flash bomb the target is illuminated at the very moment when they strike.

Quietest Election In Local History Scheduled For Tuesday

NO CONTESTS FOR OFFICES IN CIRCLEVILLE

All City Voting Places To Be Open For Regular Legal Periods

BALLOTING TO BE LIGHT

Office Races On Slate In Scattered Parts Of Pickaway County

Except for contests in scattered parts of the county, election officials next Tuesday will merely go through the motions in order to put candidates for mayor, council, trustees, school boards, justices of the peace, township, clerks and other officials into office for new terms.

Veteran politicians of city and county declare the November 2 election this year is the quietest one in the county's history. Lack of competition for office has brought about the situation. No absent voters' ballots have been filed with the county election board, and none is expected because of the almost complete absence of contests.

Despite the fact that not a single contest prevails in Circleville all 11 of the city's precincts will be open from 6:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. next Tuesday so persons who wish to give their present officials complimentary ballots may do so. Election officials declared that under the law they are unable to dispense with the election. Unless the polls are open and the election conducted persons nominated in the August primary cannot officially take office January 1.

Mayor Ben H. Gordon will go into his second term without any Republican opposition, and with him will go Miss Lillian Young, city auditor; Milton Kellstadt, city treasurer, who succeeds Charles Kirkpatrick, who did not ask reelection; Joe W. Adkins, Jr., solicitor; John C. Goeller, president of council; W. M. Reid and Ray B. Anderson, councilmen-at-large; J. Donald Mason, first ward councilman; Ray Cook, second ward councilman; George Crites, third ward councilman, and Boyd Horn, fourth ward councilman.

Mr. Kellstadt and Mr. White will be the only new officials in the city administration during the next two years. The former ran for Democratic nomination for treasurer without opposition, and has none from the G. O. P. next week. Mr. White was elected councilman-at-large in August, no Republicans asking council jobs.

Mr. Cook and Mr. Anderson were also elected in August, but both were named to fill existing vacancies in council at that time.

Two contests for mayor prevailed in the county. Tom R. Acord and John Sherman Hoover running in Ashville for the post held now by Fred Hines, and Worley See, incumbent at Darbyville, being opposed by Ernest C. Carpenter.

Other village mayors who will take office without competition will be Warren Arthur at New Holland, George Finch, Commercial Point; W. D. Heiskell, Williamsport, and George R. Bohn, South Bloomfield.

Three special issues will be voted on in various rural precincts, among them being a two mill levy for three years for the Washington township school, a one and one-half mill levy for five years in New Holland for street lighting purposes, and three mill levy for three years in Tarlton for school purposes.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON

King George was the great and good friend of President Roosevelt.

Two days later, the Greek cabinet and guerilla chief were called in by British Minister-for-the-Middle East, Richard Casey, former Australian minister in Washington. Present at the meeting was Sir Maitland Wilson, British army commander for the Balkans.

Casey immediately launched a tirade against the Greek cabinet, severely criticized their opposition to the king. Frequently during the tirade he turned to Maitland Wilson to ask:

"Commander are you with me in this?"

Maitland Wilson replied vigorously in the affirmative.

The Greek cabinet member who argued most with Casey was Sophocles Venizelos, son of the former Greek liberator and now Greek Minister of Marine. Until February of this year, Venizelos had been in the United States and felt that the American people did not believe in forcing a king down the throats of the Greek people. At one point Casey turned to him and said:

"What kind of a minister of the crown are you to recommend to your king that he not return to his people?"

Venizelos replied that the appointment of a Greek cabinet by the crown was only a formality and that the cabinet really represented the Greek people, not the king. Venizelos also asked Casey whether, in lecturing them, he was representing the views of the British government or his own personal views.

Casey replied that he was speaking personally. Vice Premier George Rousos then suggested that the Greek cabinet would like to have the views of the British government. So Casey said he would refer the matter to Churchill.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backaches quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with a burning and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

away from them. Meanwhile, also, U. S. Ambassador Kirk, though much more discreet than Casey, has been saying privately that the Greek cabinet should stand behind the king.

About 15 days later, Churchill wired King George a flamingly worded message, giving him full support and instructing him to "ride forward into battle at the head of your troops." Churchill apparently did not know that on the one occasion King George had reviewed Greek troops in exile, they had to be disarmed in advance by the British, for fear they would shoot him.

Roosevelt sent a much milder message, nevertheless expressing his support.

This ended the incident except that the British brusquely notified the seven underground leaders a day or two later that they must pack up and leave for Greece. At the Cairo airport, the seven leaders suddenly realized that they were to fly over Greece and bail out.

"The corporal will show you how to pull your parachutes," they were instructed.

None had ever used a parachute before, and they didn't know where they would land. They asked permission to phone Premier Tsoudorous. He informed Casey, who stopped the plane's departure. There the matter rests, except that insurrection against the king has spread to the point where open warfare has broken out in Greece.

Quietest Election In Local History Scheduled For Tuesday

NO CONTESTS FOR OFFICES IN CIRCLEVILLE

All City Voting Places To Be Open For Regular Legal Periods

BALLOTING TO BE LIGHT

Office Races On Slate In Scattered Parts Of Pickaway County

Except for contests in scattered parts of the county, election officials next Tuesday will merely go through the motions in order to put candidates for mayor, council, trustees, school boards, justices of the peace, township, clerks and other officials into office for new terms.

Veteran politicians of city and county declare the November 2 election this year is the quietest one in the county's history. Lack of competition for office has brought about the situation. No absent voters' ballots have been filed with the county election board, and none is expected because of the almost complete absence of contests.

Despite the fact that not a single contest prevails in Circleville all 11 of the city's precincts will be open from 6:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m. next Tuesday so persons who wish to give their present officials complimentary ballots may do so. Election officials declared that under the law they are unable to dispense with the election. Unless the polls are open and the election conducted persons nominated in the August primary cannot officially take office January 1.

Mayor Ben H. Gordon will go into his second term without any Republican opposition, and with him will go Miss Lillian Young, city auditor; Milton Kellstadt, city treasurer, who succeeds Charles Kirkpatrick, who did not ask reelection; Joe W. Adkins, Jr., solicitor; John C. Goeller, president of council; W. M. Reid and Ray B. Anderson, councilmen-at-large; J. Donald Mason, first ward councilman; Ray Cook, second ward councilman; George Crites, third ward councilman, and Boyd Horn, fourth ward councilman.

Mr. Kellstadt and Mr. White will be the only new officials in the city administration during the next two years. The former ran for Democratic nomination for treasurer without opposition, and has none from the G. O. P. next week. Mr. White was elected councilman-at-large in August, no Republicans asking council jobs.

Mr. Cook and Mr. Anderson were also elected in August, but both were named to fill existing vacancies in council at that time.

Two contests for mayor prevailed in the county, Tom R. Acord and John Sherman Hoover running in Ashville for the post held now by Fred Hines, and Worley See, incumbent at Darbyville, being opposed by Ernest C. Carpenter.

Other village mayors who will take office without competition will be Warren Arthur at New Holland, George Finch, Commercial Point; W. D. Heiskell, Williamsport, and George R. Bohn, South Bloomfield.

Three special issues will be voted on in various rural precincts, among them being a two mill levy for three years for the Washington township school, a one and one-half mill levy for five years in New Holland for street lighting purposes, and three mill levy for three years in Tarlton for school purposes.

While many areas throughout the state are conducting local
